

Scary, Silly and Spooky Halloween at The Walt Disney Family Museum

Family Fun - Watch hilarious haunted cartoon shorts and join the Spooktacular

The Presidio, San Francisco, CA (September 7, 2011) - Making the scary and spooky a little bit silly was a Walt Disney favorite, especially in his early animated shorts. To celebrate fun Halloween, The Walt Disney Family Museum presents HallowScreen! featuring nine out-of-this-world cartoon treasures on the big screen in the Museum's Fantasia-inspired theater, October 29-31. Then on October 30, put on a favorite costume and join the Halloween Spooktacular for family designed frightful fun.

Featured HallowScreen! shorts were created from 1929 to 1952, featuring breakthrough animation techniques and some of Walt's most beloved characters including Pluto, Mickey and Mr. Toad. The hour-long presentation is only $7 for adults and $5 for children. HallowScreen! is presented October 29-31 at 11am, 1, 3 and 5pm. Films include:

The Skeleton Dance*, 1929

The Goddess of Spring*, 1934

Hell's Bells*, 1929

Night on Bald Mountain* (section of Fantasia), 1940

Pluto's Judgment Day*, 1935

The Mad Doctor*, 1933

The Old Mill*, 1937

The Adventure of Ichabod and Mr. Toad*, 1949

Trick or Treat*, 1952

The October 30 Spooktacular is just $2 per person. Join the fun, 1-4pm, with crafts, such as skeleton making; games, including pin-the-skull-on-the-skeleton; a 'spooky walk' and an 'everyone wins' costume parade.

ABOUT THE MUSEUM

The Walt Disney Family Museum presents the fascinating story and achievements of Walt Disney, the man who raised animation to an art, transformed the film industry, tirelessly pursued innovation, and created a global and distinctively American legacy.
