

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT STUDY: THE BUSINESS OF SHOW BUSINESS

The purpose of the Professional Development Study is to provide participants the opportunity to gain a basic understanding of the lines of business that comprise the Disneyland® Resort; learn more about the career options available within each line of business; and gain an insight into the presenters' personal career development. Those enrolled in the Professional Development Study participate in a class led by a different group of Disney Senior Management each week. This course meets once per week for two to three hours in length, for a total of ten weeks.
