

Crossword Puzzle

Across

2. Before doing this to the ground around your house, you should check with your local power company about buried electrical power lines
4. Benjamin Franklin is said to have "discovered" this with a kite
7. Placing a shirt or fabric over one of these could start a fire
9. Electrical devices are plugged into these objects
10. This object typically features three prongs
11. This dangerous overheating can be caused by connecting too many plugs into an electrical outlet or extension cord

Down

1. This emergency can occur if you overload an outlet or extension cord
3. This type of plug is commonly required in kitchens and bathrooms as circuit protection to help safeguard against shocks
5. Water "transmits" electricity while it's acting as this
6. A unit that measures the amount of electrical power
8. The name of the metal points at the end of electrical plugs