Figure 1:

First draw a circular shape for his head.

Next draw a larger curve to help place his body.

Figure 2:

Now draw the basic shape of Thumper's body.

Next trace another line very close to the right side giving his body dimension.

Figure 3:

Now let's add an oval for his puffy chest.

Just about under where his chin will be.

Figure 4:

Next, let's add his arms so that his paws meet on his tummy.

Figure 5:

Now add one foot pointing at us, and the other is more of a side view. Don't forget to add a circle where a rabbit's fluffy tail belongs.

Figure 6:

Next we can give him some personality by adding his eye, nose, cheeks, and mouth.

Don't forget his big tooth! Also we can add his ears; one droops down, and the other goes up.

Figure 7:

Now let's add more details. Fluff up his chest, and tail too.
Let's also give him paws!

Figure 8:
Lastly, let's color him.
Hi Thumper!
