Presents the full-length Classroom Edition video

A Friendship in Vienna

Lise is Jewish.

Inge is the daughter of a Nazi official.

They're best friends.

Looking at Vienna, Austria, just prior to World War II through the eyes of these two young girls lets students clearly see the human toll of Nazi oppression.

Use this powerful true story of friendship and injustice to help students:

- Personalize history lessons on World War II and Nazism
- Learn about anti-Jewish bias that was prevalent at that time
- Become familiar with the events leading up to the Nazi Holocaust
- Explore themes of loyalty and survival

Only $79 for the full-length video

Includes a 4-page Teacher's Guide with curriculum-based activities and resources for Social Studies lessons in grades 4-8.
