

WALT

THE MAN BEHIND
THE MYTH

A PORTRAIT OF A LEGEND FROM THOSE WHO KNEW HIM BEST

More than 70 all-new interviews with family, friends, colleagues, animation legends, celebrities, and historians are combined with never-before-seen excerpts from Walt's home videos to offer the most revelatory biography to date of Walt Disney.

Narrated by Dick Van Dyke, this 88-minute video reminds us all that behind the entertainment company and the theme parks that bear his name, there was indeed a man called Walt Disney.

In addition, each beautifully produced video comes with a copy of "Discovering Walt: The Magical Life of Walt Disney," a 64-page illustrated biography by Jean-Pierre Isbouts, director of "Walt: The Man Behind the Myth."

Use this classroom edition video to:

- introduce students to Walt Disney—a creative genius, tireless innovator, and devoted family man.
- explore the unique personal qualities that enabled Walt to go from struggling young artist to head of a worldwide entertainment giant.
- launch biographical investigations of other famous individuals.
