

Fundamentalism and Terrorism

Interview a Fundamentalist

STUDENT ACTIVITY

---

Ask the following questions to each person you interview:

1. Why do you consider yourself a fundamentalist?
2. How do you define the term “fundamentalist?”
3. Describe your stance on the following issues. Include your rationale for your stance.

The Issue	Your Position	Why do you believe this?
The Bible as the “Word of God.”
Family
Alcohol/Drinking
Dancing/Partying
Gambling

Education
Medicine/Health
Government/Politics
Military/War
Violence

Once you have completed the interview, compare your responses from different interviews or with a classmate's responses, and answer the following questions:

1. Do you notice any patterns in the results?
2. What are some differences?
3. Were there any surprises in the information that you obtained? If so, describe them.
4. Do the responses confirm the definition provided in the video? If so, describe how. If not, describe why not.
5. How should we organize this information so that it could be presented to others?
6. In what ways can this information be used?
7. In what ways should this information NOT be used?
8. What are some of the limitations of this information?
9. What additional questions do you have?
