

The Women’s Rights Movement
Comparing Women

STUDENT ACTIVITY

DIRECTIONS

“Part One: United States”
You have been gathering information on the Women’s Rights Movement in the United States. Select three women who were involved in this movement. Using the comparison matrix, determine how these women are similar or different based on the given characteristics.

Women to be compared

	1	2	3
Characteristics
1				Similarities
				Differences
2				Similarities
				Differences
3				Similarities
				Differences
4				Similarities
				Differences

1. What did you discover? (Note: You may have to further research each woman's background before completing the comparison matrix.)

2. What impact did these women have on various world societies?

“Part Two: The World”

Have you ever considered what life for a woman would be like in another country? What types of opportunities do they have? What obstacles do they face? Compare opportunities women have in the United States to women in other countries in terms of available careers/jobs, family responsibilities, and political involvement. How are women in the United States and women in other countries similar and different in terms of the above characteristics? Use the comparison matrix provided.

Women to be compared

	1	2	3
Characteristics
1				Similarities
				Differences
2				Similarities
				Differences
3				Similarities
				Differences
4				Similarities
				Differences