

The Women's Rights Movement

RUBRIC

I state this position based on observation or evidence.

- 4 I state a position based on observations or evidence that have been carefully and thoroughly considered.
- 3 I state a position based on observations or evidence.
- 2 I state a position that is not well thought out.
- 1 I state a position without any consideration of observations or evidence.

I provide information that elaborates on or explains the position.

- 4 I provide clear, complete, relevant, and convincing information and examples for a position. I consider what information and examples are missing, and I explain how this might affect an evaluation of the position.
- 3 I provide clear, sufficient, and relevant information and examples for a position.
- 2 I provide some relevant information and examples for a position, but I provide some that are not relevant.
- 1 I provide information and examples for a position that are not relevant to the position.

I qualify or restrict a position.

- 4 I carefully provide relevant and reasoned qualifications or restrictions for a position, resulting in a well-defended position.
- 3 I provide relevant qualifications or restrictions for a position.
- 2 I provide relevant qualifications or restrictions for a position that represents some misconceptions about the topic; or I leave out some relevant qualifications or restrictions.
- 1 I provide qualifications or restrictions for a position that represents serious misconceptions about the topic, or I provide irrelevant qualifications or restrictions.