Sport-Ball Pencil Toppers

Crayola Supplies

- Colored Pencils
- Model Magic®

Other Supplies

- craft sticks

Why?

Your kids will be at the top of their games when they make these sports-themed pencil toppers. Model Magic® creations are perfect for any school day.

How?

1. Using Crayola® Model Magic®, shape pieces into pencil toppers.
2. Etch designs or texture into balls, gloves, and other sports equipment with a craft stick or plastic dinnerware.
3. Press toppers firmly onto the end of Crayola® Colored Pencils and dry overnight.

When and Where Suggestions?

- "This activity encouraged our son to talk about school and sports." Steve K., dad of 9-year-old.
- "We made Sport-Ball Pencil Toppers to get acquainted at our first meeting of the year." Marciella P., scout leader.

Interesting Information

The Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City houses the largest collection of baseball cards - 200,000 at last count.

Safety Guidelines

Safety guidelines recommend this art project is suitable for children age 4 years and older. Close adult supervision is required to ensure children's safety.
