

This painting is called, "Tiger in a Tropical Storm" by Henri Rousseau.

Rousseau was born in 1844, and taught himself how to paint.

Rousseau started painting in 1885 and retired only nine years later.

Rousseau's vision of an imaginary tropical world like this one made his works unique and unforgettable.