A two-panel comic strip featuring Woody and Buzz Lightyear. In the first panel, Woody stands on the left, looking at Buzz on the right. Buzz is wearing his green and white space suit and holding a small device. They are in a futuristic space environment with a dark blue background filled with white stars, a crescent moon, and colorful, abstract shapes. A sign in the background partially reads "SSION C".

OK... I'LL COME BACK!

GOOD! BUT...
HOW WILL WE GET BACK?

OH THAT'S NO PROBLEM...

In the second panel, Woody and Buzz are shown flying through the air. Buzz is in the lead, holding Woody by the arm. Both characters have determined expressions. The background is the same futuristic space setting with stars, a crescent moon, and colorful shapes. A sign in the background partially reads "Planet".
